HFS (Hair Follicle Simulation)

The HFS (Hair Follicle Simulation) Technology was developed by the method's inventor Moshe Alul, it was invented as an additional part of a permanent makeup system using state-of-the-art technology to perfect a youthful, fresh appearance and impressive solution to balding, thinning hair & hair loss in both men and women.

Latest technologies and extensive experience was invested in the development of our HFS roller (USA Patent No. 61-561,949) in order to achieve completely natural and long-lasting results.

The roller's spring system vibrates a cluster of 56 needles that are positioned on the roller wheel in a cross-weave pattern. By moving the roller on the scalp, tiny pigment points that resemble hair follicles form.

With the roller system, large areas are filled within several minutes, resulting in a completely realistic texture with remarkably accurate appearance as a hair follicle.

NEEDLES

The line of screw system is made unique for NPM needles from 316L ROSS stainless steel. This material is licensed for medical use with MSDS report. Furthermore, the needle designed to suck the color and to release it only when the needle in touch with the skin which reduces spills and keep a clean professional treatment. NPM needles are the only PMU needles in the world that contain "wings" on the main pin located inside of the needle cartridge. There are two small wings which function to avoid unstable side movements of the needle. While the motor stops, the needle will stay inside. The needles are disposable, for one time use only in order to meet the sterilization standard for medical treatment. All needles apply to Biocompatible standards(BF). In NPM needle collection, you can find 21 different types of needles for all required applications.

PMU Colors Collection

NPM Pigments Technology:

Color is of great importance to the outcome of the makeup. NPM is providing a selection of stable pigments with over 60 shades. Inside each bottle of color, there is a small stainless steel ball, whose purpose is to mix the color uniformly while shaking the bottle. This method ensures correct mixing ratio between the pigments powder to liquid. This helps to maintain the color quality over time and to prevent the pigment from drying out. All NPM shades come in 12 ml. bottles and they can be mixed together to produce Sub shades.

Correction colors:

According to Isaac Newton color theory, he states that complementary colors are also neutralizing colors. For example, when one color is placed on top of the other they cancel each other effect. This is how we find 'repair shades', designed to 'neutralize' the shade in the brow. With the vast experience that NPM has acquired through the years, we've decided to produce pigments that neutralize the red and blue already existing in the pigment in order to prevent customers from doing unnecessary mixing of colors or adding any elements that may end in not getting the end result wanted by our customers.
